LECTURERS & PRESENTERS

Johnnette Benkovic is an evangelist. Experiencing a deep conversion back to her Catholic faith she discerned a call to share the Gospel message through the media. She is Founder and President of Living His Life Abundantly@ International, Inc., a Catholic evangelization apostolate. She is also Founder of Catholic Women of Grace™, an apostolate for Christian women. Its purpose is to encourage and affirm women in their dignity as daughters of God and in their gift of authentic femininity. She has authored many books and conducts retreats and seminars throughout the United States.

Sister Olga of the Eucharist is a perpetually professed hermit in the Archdiocese of Boston. Born in Iraq her ministry was in the prisons and streets, serving the prisoners, homeless, elderly and handicapped of war before starting the Assyrian Church's first religious order for women in 700 years. She was received into the Latin Rite of the Catholic Church by Cardinal Sean O'Malley while studying at Boston College. Today she serves as a campus minister at Boston University.

Sarah Hart is a resident of Nashville, TN. She is a contemporary Catholic Singer and songwriter. She is the recipient of six Unity awards and her music has been featured on the television shows Joan of Arcadia and Strong Medicine.

Msgr. Christopher D. Connelly is a Vicar General for the Diocese of Springfield and rector of St. Michael's Cathedral in Springfield. A graduate of Providence College, he was ordained in 1993.
